INTRODUCTION: The following is a guideline for establishing membership dues to the North Dakota Petroleum Council. While the guideline is the recommended means to calculate dues for a prospective member, the Board of Directors reserves the right to negotiate a different rate for any prospective member and may consider other factors, such as company size, number of offices, gross income, or any other factor the board deems appropriate for consideration. This is a minimum suggested dues schedule.

I. Oil and Gas Producing Companies

Total production is equal to the net amount of barrels of oil produced plus net gas production converted to BO by 20 MCF to 1 BO
