NORTH DAKOTA OIL PAC

Jeff Herman, Co-Chair • Ryan Kopseng, Co-Chair
PO Box 1395 • Bismarck, ND • 701.223.6380

The ND Oil PAC promotes good government through involvement of industry members and support of candidates who understand the oil and gas industry. The ND Oil PAC's by-laws include the following items in the description of the group's purpose:

- Collect funds to support candidates and issues within the state of North Dakota.
- Identify candidates whose positions best serve good government and the North Dakota oil and gas industry.
- Distribute funds to candidates selected by the ND Oil PAC.

Who can join the ND Oil PAC?

The ND Oil PAC is a voluntary, non-partisan, non-profit, unincorporated committee of individual oil industry members and others interested in the exploration and development of oil and gas in North Dakota. Corporate contributions are prohibited. We can only accept contributions from U.S. citizens.

Who determines how the funds are used?

Investments in any amount are welcome; however, VOTING memberships are restricted to those who contribute $200 or more. All voting members comprise the ND Oil PAC's Board of Directors, who determine which issues and candidates should receive support and allocates how much money shall be given to each candidate or issue.

The ND Oil PAC's Role in Politics

The ND Oil PAC is made up of employees, business owners and anyone involved in the state's oil and gas industry. The ND Oil PAC supports political candidates whose positions support the oil and gas industry and the business community in general.

The ND Oil PAC is the way for you to have a more effective voice in North Dakota politics at this critical time in our state's history. We URGE you to support your industry and join the ND Oil PAC.
