

NOMINATION CATEGORIES

EXCELLENCE IN SAFETY AWARD

The award for Excellence in Safety recognizes a company or individual that has gone above and beyond to create a culture of safety in the workplace through policies, new technologies or products, advanced training or other initiatives. NDPC member companies that have shown measurable results in safety through a new initiative or a long-term, sustainable program are eligible to apply.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP AWARD

The Environmental Stewardship Award recognizes an NDPC member company that demonstrates a commitment to cleaner, more efficient operations or that helped improve habitat, grasslands, waterways, parks or through other conservation efforts. Companies that can provide measurable results of a long-term, sustainable culture or specific initiatives or programs that show a commitment to environmental stewardship are eligible to apply.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AWARD

The Community Engagement Award celebrates the spirit of community in the Bakken. This award will recognize an NDPC member company or individual who embodies this spirit by working to build better relationships through company culture, programs, events or other initiatives that bring industry and stakeholders together. To be eligible, this company or individual must display a commitment to investing in the community through education about the industry, community service, or coordinated events or activities aimed at community outreach.
